

Transformers in Natural Language Processing

Transformers have revolutionized NLP by introducing self-attention mechanisms. BERT and GPT are widely used transformer-based models that achieve state-of-the-art results on tasks like text classification, question answering, and summarization. Pre-training on large corpora then fine-tuning on specific tasks is the dominant paradigm in modern NLP research and has proven extremely effective.